Tuesday, Auguſt 6. 1706.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Auguſt 7.

Rome, July 13.

THIS Evening Cardinal Grimani arriv'd in this City, being attended by armed Men in 6 Caleſhes; and took up his Lodging in the Palace of Rario a la Lungara. The Palace of Salviati, which is not far from it, is fitting up for the Cardinal of Saxe Zeits. 'Tis reported, that to prevent any ill Accidents that might happen, becauſe ſeveral Neapolitan Rebels, which the Court of Vienna has got rid of by ſending Cardinal Grimani hither, are return'd to this City, hoping to find means to excite new Troubles, the Pope will order a Corps de Garde to be plac'd in that Quarter. Letters from Naples ſay all was very quiet there, and that the Duke of Eſcalona had taken a Review of the Foot in and about that City, which may ſpeedily be drawn together. The Horſe which are in a very good Condition, are quarter'd in proper Places, to be drawn together at a ſhort Warning likewiſe. He has caus'd Barricades to be made in the principal Streets, and poſted regular Forces to guard them. 'Twas rumour'd, that he would publiſh an Order forbidding all Foot-men to wear Swords or other Arms: He has not thought fit to do it, but has declar'd that if the leaſt Diſorder be committed by any Foot-men wearing Arms, he will ſend them to the Galleys and their Maſters to the Caſtle of Baya.

From the Amſterdam Courant, &c.

Vienna, July 28. The 26th Inſtant being the Emperor's Birthday, on which he enter'd into the 29th Year of his Age, was celebrated at Court. Preparations are making for carrying on the War againſt the Malecontents of Hungary with the utmoſt Vigour. General Count Guido Staremberg has drawn together his Army; and having poſted a ſufficient Guard in the Lines he has caus'd to be made from Petronel to Oedenburg, is march'd to Bridendorf, there to wait for the Reinforcements which are promis'd him. In the mean time he has caus'd a Bridge of Boats to be laid over the Danube near Haimbourg, to keep open a Communication with Moravia. The Battallions of Haſlingen and Wend, of 600 Men each, arriving here 2 or 3 Days ago from Bavaria, were ſent forward to Hungary. And ſeveral Boats are ſent down the Danube daily from hence, with Recruits, Proviſions and Ammunition of all ſorts for our Troops in Hungary. 'Tis advis'd from Eſſeck that General Nehm is advanc'd towards Buda with 2000 Germans and 12000 Raſcians, as well to cover that Place, as to attempt ſome thing againſt the Malecontents: And that Collonel Tyburg is alſo marching with 1500 Men, to joyn the Ban of Croatia, in order to cover that Province and Stiria. General Rabutin with 15000 Men is coming out of Tranſilvania, having left ſufficient Garriſons in the fortified Places of that Principality, and will ſpeedily arrive at Tockay. The Malecontents make no leſs Preparations on their ſide and particularly have drawn together an Army at Newheuſel, with a good train of Artillery. The miſters Mediators made preſſing Inſtances to the Imperial Court to prolong the Ceſſation of Arms 6 Weeks; but were anſwer'd, that on Account of the Condition of the Army in Tranſilvania, and for 2 other Reaſons, it could not be granted. Hoſtilities are already begun, for the Malecontents have burnt 2 Villages near Oedenburg. The Troops that are to come from Bohemia and the Rhine to be employ'd in Hungary, are impatiently expected. P. S. Baron Sirmay one of the Deputies of the Malecontents is juſt arriv'd at Court, from Hungary.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Aug. 7.

Fort Louis, July 26. Since the Marſhal de Villars beat the Enemy out of the Iſland of Marquiſat, he has caus'd a Bridge to be laid from it to Fort Louis. The Enemy are poſted and fortifying themſelves on the other ſide of the River of Stolhoffen, or little Branch of the Rhine that ſeparates the Iſland Marquiſat from the main Land: But it being fordable when the Water is low, they will be oblig'd to maintain a Body of Troops there, to hinder the King's Army from penetrating into Germany, and attacking the Lines of Stolhoffen behind. The Marſhal de Villars has order'd Intrenchments and Redoubts to be made, and Batteries to be rais'd on the Egde of the ſaid Iſland; and theſe Works made on both ſides are but at the Diſtance of Half Muſquet ſhot.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Auguſt 10.

From the Imperial Camp at Stohlhoffen, Auguſt 2. The Prince of Baden is at Raſtad, having poſted his Army in the Lines of Stohlhoffen and Buhl, and given the Command in his Abſence to General Thungen. Two Days ago that General took that Command upon him, and has ſince taken a View of the Lines; and by his Order Men are actually at work to repair them and put them into ſo good a Condition that we need be in no Apprehenſion of the Enemy. The Enemy have perfected their Intrenchments and other Works on the Iſland Marquiſat which they lately took from us. Their Army is ſtill encamp'd in the Neighbourhood of Fort Louis; but they give out they will move higher up and paſs the Rhine at Fort Kehl, either to make an Attempt on our Lines, or to conſume the Forrage quite to Buhl, to deprive our Cavalry of Subſiſtance. The Marſhal de Villars is at Strasbourg. He lately caus'd 4 Regiments of Horſe to paſs the Rhine there; but the Officer who commands them keeps with them cloſe under the Cannon of Fort Kehl, to prevent the Deſertion of his Men: But notwithſtanding his Precaution, ſeveral Deſerters of that Detachment come over to us daily. To Day, particularly, 9 Troopers well mounted came to us, taking the Opportunity of forraging to deſert.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Aug. 10.

Francfort, Aug. 4. The Leather Pontons which were Yeſterday going to be ſent from hence by Water to the Army of the Empire on the Upper Rhine, were on a ſudden countermanded, and are now putting into Waggons to be carried to Prince Eugene of Savoy in Italy. Three Imperial Regiments are march'd from the Army at Stolhoffen for Hungary, and are to be follow'd by 1 of the Elector of Mentz, 1 of Hohenzollern, and 1 of Wirtemberg. Their Room is to be ſupplied by the Troops quarted in the Bergſtraet. 'Tis reported the Count of Friſe Governour of Landau, who has lain Sick ſome time at Raſtad, is dead.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Aug. 10.

Ghent, Aug. 8. The New Council of State at Bruſſels have publiſh'd a Placard, enjoyning all Walloon Officers that are in the Service of the King of France or King Philip to quit it, viz. thoſe that are in Spain within 3 Months, thoſe on the Rhine within 2 Months, and thoſe in the Netherlands within 14 Days, on Pain of Confiſcation of their Eſtates and Effects, and of being further treated as Rebels.

Hague, Aug. 10. The freſheſt Letters from Paris, ſay a Courier was arriv'd at Court being ſent by the D. of Orleans from Italy, with Advice that he was oblig'd to retire towards Piemont, and that the only means to ſtop P. Eugene was for the Duke de la Feuillade to raiſe the Siege of Turin and joyn him with all his Forces, to enable him to offer Battle to P. Eugene before the Heſſians and the other Troops he had left behind him could get up with him. This Expreſs was ſent back agen, with Orders 'tis believ'd for raiſing that Siege, becauſe the Court has ſince given out they expect to hear of Action in Italy. Theſe Letters add, that the Duke of Anjou has reſolv'd to engage the Portugueſe and their Auxiliaries in Caſtile before the Troops from Catalonia have joyn'd them; and that the King of France has order'd the Duke of Vendome to attempt to ſuccour Menin, coſt what it will.

Portſmouth, Auguſt 2. Yeſterday came in from Guernſey with Soldiers, Her Majeſty's Ships the Cornwall and Valour. In the Evening ſail'd a cruiſing 6 ſmall Frigates to drive away the French Privateers which are daily looking in to obſerve the Motions of the Fleet. We hear the Dutch Tranſports with their Convoy are lying under the Neſs.

Portſmouth, Aug 4. This Morning the Signal was made for Sailing, and about half an Hour after 11 the whole Fleet put to Sea with a S. E. Wind, and in an Hour's time the Flag was almoſt out of Sight.

Deale Aug. 4 Her Majeſty's Ships the Monmouth, Rumney, Tilbury and Tartar, with the 3 Dutch Men of War, and the Dutch Tranſports under their Convoy, which were got to Dungeneſs in their way to Portſmouth, were oblig'd by contrary Winds to put back into the Downes the 2 Inſtant; but to Day are all ſail'd again for the Weſtward.

Since the True Golden Snuff hath been ſo univerſally approved of, both in City and Country, to be that moſt excellent Remedy for moſt Diſeaſes affecting the Head, the extraordinary Vertues and Uſe whereof are fully deſcrib'd in the printed Directions, hath been baſely counterfeited, and is no where elſe to be had then at Maſon's Coffee-Houſe in Bartholomew-Lane behind the Royal Exchange, at Mr. Girard's, Toy-ſhop, at the Three Flower-de-Luces near Northumberland-houſe, and at Mr. Osborn's at the Roſe and Crown under St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleet-ſtreet, at 1 s. per paper with Directions. Therefore beware of upſtart Counterfeits. At the two firſt-mentioned Places it likewiſe to be had the Balſam of Cathay, for eaſing all Gouty and Rheumatick Pains, at 2 s. 6 d. per Box.

A new Secret to cure the Tooth-ach though never ſo violent or proceeding from what cauſe ſoever, is communicated by a Gentleman, (who hath travelled through moſt parts of Europe) to a Friend of his, which if us'd according to direction is the moſt effectual and ſpeedy remedy ever yet known, not only for giving preſent eaſe, but likewiſe preventing its returning for a conſiderable time, is admitted to be ſold only at the Golden Lamp a Tinſhop on London-bridge by the Gate, at the King's-Arms in Stocks-Market Confectioner-Shop, at the Caſe and Knives and Spur in Great Turnſtile Holborn, Cutler, and at the Sugar-Loaf over-againſt old Round Court in the Strand Confectioner, at 1 s. a Paper ſeal'd up with Directions.

The Royal Chymical Waſh-Ball for the Hands and Face, largely experienc'd and daily commended by all that uſe them, and that for making the Skin ſo delicately ſoft and ſmooth, as not to be parallell'd by either Waſh, Powder, Coſmetick, &c. it be indeed a real Beautifier of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetters, Ring-worms, Morphew, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pits or Redneſs of the Small-pox, &c. keeping it of a laſting and extream Whiteneſs, it ſoon alters red or rough Hands; and is admirable in Shaving the Head, which not only gives a more exquiſite ſharpneſs to the Razor, but ſo comforts the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catch-Cold; and is of a grateful and pleaſant Scent, without the leaſt Grain of Mercury. Is ſold only by Mr. Allnutt, Glover, the corner of Popes-Head-Alley againſt the Royal Exchange, and at Mrs. Giles's, Millener and Toyſhop next Hercules-Pillar-Ally by the Temple, at 1 s. each, with printed Directions at large.

The Incomparable India Dentiffick Roots, only to be had at Thomas Allcrafts a Toy-ſhop at the Sign of the Bluecoat-Boy over againſt the Royal Exchange, and at Young-Man's Coffee-Houſe near Chairing-Croſs, price 6 d each Root. This Root dipped in fair Water, and bruis'd with a Hammer, becomes a ſoft and pleaſant Bruſh to the Teeth and Gums, afterwards pairing away by degrees the outward Rind, wears ſo to the laſt. Its Vertues are beyond any Human Art for cleaning the Teeth, as to bring them to the Whiteneſs of Ivory in a few times uſing; it preſerves your Teeth from corruption and prevents farther decay in any before corrupted, whoever uſes it two or three times a day will ever avoid Tooth-ach, having foul Teeth, or a ſtrong Breath, nor is this Root in its uſe any wiſe offenſive to ſmell or taſte.
